

Case Studies

Chanda Rama Devi

28 year old Rama Devi is the elder child of Raghavulu and Goppavva The couple has 2 sons and 3 daughters and Ramadevi is elder among them and lives in Shivarampalli of Saidapur mandal. At the age of five unfortunately she fell in fire during Bogi celledretation. Her parents spent much money to make her alive. From that day she was struggling a lot to lead comfort life. Facing many odds she completed her primary education the passion to continue her education made her to walk for 3 kilometers successfully she completed her higher education also. She got married with an MR mild person .Due to the health conditions she was kept at home but the poverty did not make her to stay at home for a long period. She adopted the child of her sister who died in a fire accident.

When the meeting of the disable group was planned she was informed by the likeminded person. After participation in that meeting she learnt rights and entitlements of PWDs. she is able to fight for her rights. She availed her benefits bus pass and other entitlements .She fought with the local panchayat leaders to avail Employment Guaranty Scheme and successfully worked for 50 day of work. She is grateful and thankful to the network for giving her moral support as well as giving vast knowledge on the rights of the PWDs.