

Case Studies

Sunitha

Kandukuri Sunitha 20 year old is the daughter of late Narayana and Dhanalaxmi of Somaram village of Saidapur mandal. She has a brother doing his traditional business as goldsmith. When she was 10 year old while playing she met with an accident and gone through the surgery. The innocent parents didn't take care after surgery. Her nerves were dead .She began creeping with the help of her palms. Her co children understand the pain of her and helped her in all aspects in the mean time she completed her school education. After his father's death she stopped her education and worked in the tailor shop and learnt tailoring skills. She began earning with her tailoring skills.

When NPdO network team interacted with her she told the condition of her family, She was taught so many things she was examined and certified by the doctor and encouraged her to avail the pension benefit from the government. She was trained on the rights of the PWDs and sensitized how to avail the services. Then onwards she took an active participation in capacity building trainings and the campaigns. As a livelihood support she was provided a machine now she is helping others and leading an independent life.

She was thankful to NPdO for giving support, making her emotionally strong to face any hurdle in her life.